Message From Rabbi Konigsburg

I came across a song by a group called Passenger it is called “Let Her Go” and here are some of the lyrics:

*Well you only need the light when it's burning low
Only miss the sun when it starts to snow
Only know you love her when you let her go
Only know you've been high when you're feeling low
Only hate the road when you're missin' home
Only know you love her when you've let her go
And you let her go*

(You can listen to it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZseEPQq##Ks>)

We have come to hate the darkness, the pain and suffering of life. It is not something that we insist that we share with our friends. Many times the Rabbis would ask their colleagues in the Talmud, “Do you enjoy your suffering?” and the reply is invariably, “Neither the suffering nor its reward.” Even if God were to grant excessive rewards to those who suffer, nobody would ever choose to suffer.

And yet, as the song implies, we need the low points to fully appreciate the high points. It is the low periods in life that help us value the good days. It is the darkness that makes us treasure the light. In the summer we curse the heat but in the winter we curse the cold, even though we know that we can't have one without the other. We love to travel but it only reminds us that we love to be home.

When we look back at the old year, we probably can recall our lowest days and our darkest hours. We can rightly wish that they would have never happened. But now that those moments are a part of our life, they help point us to living our lives better, with more joy and with more light. It is also true that the good days help us to bear the dark days. When we know how good things can be, we can treasure those memories when the going gets tough.

Both the good times and the bad times mold our character. What happens in our life may be random and unpredictable, but we can control how we feel and what we can learn from what is going on. Knowing that God is with us on good days and bad, sharing our joy and holding us when we cry, is how we keep our life in perspective. We don't pine away for good times that are in the past nor do we dwell on the bad times. We learn from our experiences and we keep moving forward. Let us enter this New Year not just older but wiser, with the experiences of the past to help us face the future.

Message From Foundation Executive Director, Robin Gotlieb

The Annual Report for the Temple Beth-El Foundation will be distributed during the High Holidays. It will present a complete picture of everything that the Foundation does for Temple Beth-El and its membership, as well as the annual financial report. I have found it amazing to see all that goes into making it possible to further TBEF's mission "to perpetuate the vibrancy of Temple Beth-El by sustaining a strong endowment". I am also proud to be a part of the effort to foster the continued growth of the Foundation's assets.

After reviewing the Annual Report for the TBEF, if you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact the Foundation Office at (205)933-2794 or anyone on the Board of Directors.

Thank you for your continuing support of the Temple Beth-El Foundation.

We have received the following donations since our last bulletin:

- Adrienne and Julian Brook made a generous donation to the Friedman Fiduciary Fund in honor of Karl Friedman, "our friend and mentor", on his 90th birthday.
- Lynette and J.B. Mazer and family made a generous donation in memory of Vic Feigelson to the Vic and Roz Feigelson Religious School Fund.
- Phyllis and Jack Alltmont made a very generous contribution to the Sidney Ziff Torah Repair Fund in memory of Goldie and Sidney Ziff.
- Joyce Spielberger and Maury Shevin made a chai contribution to commemorate the yahrzeits of their mothers, Alva Shevin Permutt and Barbara M. Tenenbaum, to the Tenenbaum/Spielberger Tikkun Olam Fund.

MOVING FORWARD AT TEMPLE BETH-EL: TECHNOLOGY (AND A NEW LOGO) IN THE NEW YEAR

Rabbi Konigsburg, in his on-line book Revitalizing Synagogues, has suggested that “there are three kinds of primary Jewish acts: “communal prayer, holy study, and good deeds.” These primary acts require one important element: a community of individuals who pray, study, and share acts of chesed together. Today, building and maintaining community relies on technology. Distance and demanding schedules require us to use communications tools that strengthen our Jewish connection and learning. We are pleased to share two technology initiatives which will expand Jewish engagement within our Birmingham community, and beyond the borders of our city.

New www.templebeth-el.net Links Judaism to You: After months of planning and hard work by our Technology Committee, a newly-renovated website is now up and running. Aimed at improved layout, enhanced ability for interactivity, and user-friendly financial transactions, we hope you will use our website to learn more about programs. A few features worth noting:

- A sliding header with the most current events of our synagogue
- Links to Rabbinic sermons, Religious School activities, and the TBE Facebook page
- Payment and sign-up links specifically designed to be user-friendly
- A new logo to reflect a fresh, new approach to Jewish engagement
- A simple mobile phone version

There are additional features of the site still in development, and we hope you will use the website often and in good health in the upcoming year. Visit www.templebeth-el.net to check out the new design, features, and payment options.

Live-Streaming On The Way: In August of this year, the Temple Beth-El Board and Foundation Board approved the installation of live-stream cameras in the Kimerling Chapel and the Main Sanctuary. With an eye toward reaching elderly members of our community and Jews in smaller communities of Alabama, the live-streaming of services will bring Jewish ritual and learning to many using the most modern tools available. Work on this initiative is underway, and in the coming weeks and months we will share more about how you can link to our services via the internet when unable to join us in person.

Staff, Volunteers, and Foundation Provide Invaluable Support: The Website Development project was led by Technology Committee members Evan Rhodes and Robin Smith, and managed by Communications Coordinator Isa Dorsky with significant staff and lay leader support. The live-streaming video project has been supported by Julian Brook, Jessica Goldstein, and Evan Rhodes. The above initiatives have been made possible by the Charles and Esther Lee Kimerling Family Media Fund of the Temple Beth-El Foundation, which was developed to enhance Jewish learning at Temple Beth-El through use of media.

KOL RUCHANI L' NASHIM: A SPIRITUAL VOICE FOR WOMEN

Join us for our women’s monthly prayer group, bringing together the beautiful energy of Jewish women with personal spiritual voices. The group is for women drawn to explore their own spiritual calling and seeking to delve deeper into the meanings of the prayers collected in our siddur. It is for each woman desiring to strengthen her kavannah in prayer and explore her personal connection with God. We come together to learn from one another, to celebrate our unique strengths and spirit, and to grow together in prayer and kedusha (holiness).

We will meet in the Cultural Center from 9:00-10:15am on October 19, November 23, December 21, January 25, February 22, and March 22.

For further information, contact Michelle Konigsburg at 983-7601 or mkonigsburg@gmail.com.

TEMPLE BETH-EL Religious School

Which of the Arba'ah Minim are you?

There are those who say, “spend enough time with someone and you will start to look like them.” Others could argue that people are drawn to pets that share similar characteristics. Yet who shares similar thoughts with plants? The rabbis, that’s who.

The great sages of our tradition understood the gathering of the arba'ah minim as a metaphor for bringing together the entirety of the Jewish people. We are told to celebrate Sukkot in Leviticus 23:40 by gathering the four species together. There it tells us, “On the first day you shall take the product of the hadar tree [understood as the etrog], branches of palm trees [lulav], boughs of leafy trees [hadas – myrtle], and willows [aravah] of the brook, and you shall rejoice before Adonai your God seven days.” Each species of plant mentioned the rabbis interoperate as a different kind of Jew.

Knowledge of Torah is equated with taste and righteousness is measured by aroma. As such, each product gathered together to form the lulav and etrog represents a particular Jew.

- Etrog – Having both taste and aroma, the etrog represents those Jews who have knowledge and practice righteous acts regularly.
- Lulav – The date, fruit of the palm, has taste but no aroma, therefore it corresponds to Jews who know Torah but do not practice good deeds.
- Hadas – Since the hadas has aroma but no taste, it represents those who perform good deeds but do not know Torah.
- Aravah – Absent of taste and aroma, aravah symbolizes ignorant and unrighteous Jews¹.

Coming out of a season of self reflection our continued challenge is to look inside and decide who we want to be for this coming year. How do we want our children to see us? Will our modeling lead to the type of person we want our children to be? Throughout Sukkot as we invite friends and family over for meals, reflect upon the teachings of our sages. Let us all ask ourselves, “Which of the Arba'ah Minim are you?”

¹ Understood from Midrash Leviticus Rabbah 30

CHESED ROSH HASHANAH

Our Chesed Committee volunteers are amazing! So many attended and baked for our program at Brookdale Place that was led so beautifully by our Rabbi Konigsburg. In attendance was a room filled to capacity with residents of Brookdale Place as well as Greenbriar, thanks to our partnering with CJFS.

Our volunteers also made and delivered with smiles gorgeous and delicious goody bags for Jewish residents at Trade Towers, Fairhaven, Kirkwood, Highland Manor, Greenbriar, Mt Royal, St Martins, Town Village, and to several seniors cared for in their homes.

We also sent New Year cards to our senior friends thanks to the thoughtful work of Dale Marcus.

We extend our thanks to our volunteers for their work this holiday and for their continued commitment to be the caring voice of our congregation in our community. We would like to recognize Toby Siegel, Kathy Goldman, Natalie Sikora, Neal & Pat Miller, Jean Bearman, Donna Schiff, Arlene Fisher, Janet Reagan, Naomi & Ed Fineberg, Ruth Siegler, Ella Rosen, Riva Hirsch, Marian Radwin, Sheree Kanter, Michelle Konigsburg, Ellen Sokol, Eleanor Binderman, Diane Slaughter, Sheri Krell, Micky Rubenstein, Carol Tuck, Karen Halpern, Lisa Engel, Meredith & Brian Weintraub, Amy Peetluk, Faye Bernstein, Shirley Hasson, Matt Levey, Michelle Bearman-Wolnek.

Again, please allow me to say that our volunteers are truly amazing. Won't you join us?

FAMILY PROMISE OF BIRMINGHAM NEEDS VOLUNTEERS IN NOVEMBER

BEinvolved

Temple Emanu-El will host our next rotation for FPoB the week of November 30. Temple Beth-El is a support congregation, and we are working together with volunteers from the entire Jewish community to help provide meals and a warm, safe place to stay each night during that week.

Ways to help:

- Provide a meal one night and dine with the guests at Temple: 1 hour commitment
- Volunteer to help with set up or clean up on Sunday November 30 or Sunday December 7: 1 hour commitment.
- If you own a truck with a hitch, help pick up beds: 1 hour commitment
- Volunteer to spend one night at Temple as a chaperone: arrive at 7pm and leave at 7am the next morning. Sleep in your own Temple classroom as your private bedroom with a cot.

If your child needs volunteer hours, Family Promise is a simple and meaningful way to earn those hours!

Please contact Ann Goldstein at feliceanngold@gmail.com or 907-3887 to ask any questions or to schedule your volunteer time.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

LJCC Joy Club: Join the LJCC Joy Club once a month for a delicious Kosher lunch and program at 12:15pm. For more information, contact Mindy Cohen at 879-0411.

The LJCC wants to make it easy for you to bring the joy of Shabbat to you and your family each week. And we are doing it with a "tote" filled with wonderful goodies for Shabbat! Each week your Shabbatote will be filled with Ricki's Challah, Shabbat candles, your choice of wine or grape juice, & beautiful fresh flowers from Flowerbuds. We will also add recipes and other Jewish learning. On Yom Tovs (holidays), the totes will have an additional holiday-appropriate item like apples and honey, dried fruits, gelt etc. Ricki's challah is famous in Memphis and her fame is spreading throughout the Southeast. Her challah is mouth-watering delicious, fresh and strictly kosher and we're thrilled that she's baking it fresh for our Shabbatotes each week! We will have it all nicely packaged and ready for you to pick up on Fridays at 9 am in the Main Lobby! Each Shabbatote is available for $18. You can order for one week or as many as you like! Order online at www.bhamjcc.org.

Sunday, November 2nd is TLC (Teens Lending a Caring Hand) Day, a Collat Jewish Family Services event annually scheduled for the Sunday that marks the end of daylight savings time. We are seeking seniors who want or need assistance with a variety of tasks - including turning their clocks back - as well as teens in the 7th through 12th grades, who are interested in performing a very special mitzvah. Please call or email Lise at 879-3438 or lise@cjfsbham.org if you would like to volunteer or have teens come to your home.

After the High Holidays, Collat Jewish Family Services will be collecting the food donated by congregation members between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, and we can't do it without you! We can schedule you to help for one hour or four, whenever you're available. Please contact Lise Grace at 879-3438 or lise@cjfsbham.org if you would like to volunteer.

The LJCC Mah Jongg Tournament will be held on Wednesday, October 29 from 10am-3pm. Cost is $30. Proceeds benefit the Roz Feigelson Circle of Life Knitter's Society. Contact Mindy Cohen mcohen@bhamjcc.org or 879-0411 ext. 233 for more information.
